

General Outline

The Daily Processing course covers an introduction to the day-to-day record-keeping activities of running a business. You'll learn how easy it is to create, record and print/email invoices, bills, and use 'recurring sales' to save lots of time.

You'll also cover customer and bill payments, banking, and how to adapt it all to your business or workplace.

Also, electronic banking is covered, such as using live feeds, reconciling your bank account easily, and using bank rules.

Bring along questions so we can help you even further.
